Last Weeks Speaker

Maureen Trefry our 4th President spoke about her experiences of life in the fast lane of Rotary clubs. The highs the lows and everything in-between. Even giving a shout out to this esteemed publication for its logging of events throughout the year. Don't cha know it was delightful.

Carla and the Jet fueled Interactors!

Carla Femino, rarely seen but always missed, took advantage of vacation week to bring along some of the stars of the Interact Club to see how adults misbehave during the day. If you weren't sure the short one on the left is Carla, who is the adult in the room. Oh yeah!

Last Week at Beverly Rotary

Meeting started at: 12:15PM

Pledge: Jamie Engel

Reflection: Sean Goudreau
"You become who you surround yourself with. Rotary is filled with good people doing good things. When you spend time with Rotarians, you become a better person."

Guests:
Interact students from BHS;
Alyssa Goudreau (guest of Sean)

Birthdays:
Nick Biancucci (not present)

Announcements:
Remember the big event coming up on April 11!
The Club also needs folks to step up and make gift baskets for the auction.

There will be a social event with Kiwanis on March 12 at The Castle.
On March 27 from 4-7pm come out to Gentile for beer and maybe karaoke.

Sergeant:
Paul Guanci told the Club about weird laws in MA and fined those who had broken them. Did you know it is illegal to swear at games, use bullets as currency, or eat more than 3 sandwiches at a wake?

Happy Dollars: Bradley Hunt for ashes in the shape of a pterodactyl, Paul Guanci and Tim Flaherty for getting ashes together, Paul for his daughter being in the Top 20 for Long Jump, also Paul for his 22nd wedding anniversary

Speaker: Maureen Trefry spoke about her reign as Club President from 2017-2018. She joined the Club in 2002, sponsored by Don Kelley. Being President, while stressful, was easy once she was in - and was one of the best years of her life. She talked about the comforting annual events like bell ringing, polar plunge, Arts Fest, Cabot event, as well as special events like raising money for North Shore Pitch Perfect and doing a global grant to benefit WellBoring in Kenya. Under her leadership, the club raised lots of money for a lot of great causes.

Maureen's tips: If you're thinking about being prez, do it! If you become Prez, save your Award Winning Sprockets - they will be a time capsule of your year.

Raffle:
Jo Broderick pulled the ticket, but no luck.

Adjourned at 1:07PM

Respectfully submitted,
Allison Babin
