AUTO - HOME - BUSINESS - LIFE

Last week at Beverly Rotary

January 29th - Jack Good's Day.

Connor Mooney started the meeting at 12:15pm

Reflection:

Julie Flowers delivered a poem reflection of the day.

Guests:

Vinni Egizi (Club)
Bonnie Kennedy (Al Temkin)
Dante Egizi (Club)
Amelia Castelli (Club)
Brian Ridolfo (The Cabot)
Jennifer Gonyea (The Cabot)

Announcements:

February 12th - Rotary District dinner at Spinelli's: World Peace and Understanding Event - Navigating the Polio Vaccine during Turbulent Times!

March 12th - 5-7pm Social Event at The Castle with Kiwanis

April 11th - Spring fundraiser Rockin' with Rotary at Danversport

Valentine's Winter Service Project: Meals on Wheels Valentine's Care packets (Ellen Dunn, Carlos Robledo)

New Member Inductions:

Nate Seavey inducted The Cabot as Corporate Member, represented by Brian Ridolfo and Jennifer Gonyea

PLUS transferred newbies:

Jacki Rapisardi recognized Gwen Jones and Celia Black for transferring their membership from WA state.

Happy Dollars contributors:

Marshall - Paris Trip
Gwen - World Soccer lovers
Celia - Traveling to Superbowl media week
Carlos - Traveling to Colombia for his wife's birthday

Sergeant: Dr. Jamie Engel and Michael Harrington presented "No Good Deed Goes Unpunished" in loving memory of Jack Good.

The following people were recognized:

Bill Beckman

Single-handedly wiping out disease and plague on the North Shore – and for all the good work he's done for Beverly Youth Exchange.

Jo Broderick

Training and supporting over 100 college presidents at Montserrat over several decades, and for her dedication to inducting new members and organizing speakers.

Joe Bubriski

Bravely serving his country – and being one of the most on-time presidents we've ever had.

Bob Butterworth

Providing Emmy-worthy TV programming for the masses.

Ed Cahill

Serving quietly and effectively as "Shadow Mayor" for multiple terms – and kindly paying his brother's fees.

Tim Flaherty

Bravely exposing himself to Mike & Al's hard-hitting journalistic questions on Around Town with Rotary, running the Beverly Y, and putting up with his spirited board as President of the GBCC.

Sean Goudreau

Stepping up as Rotary President – a year early – and hosting one of the most successful events in Rotary history.

Leslie Gould

Glamorously and successfully running the nation's number-one regional Chamber.

Chris Haight

Solving the region's toughest IT problems, all while keeping up with Leslie.

Ellen Dunn

Doing good work under the radar – helping on numerous committees, co-chairing this year's auction, organizing the Arts Fest t-shirt booth, and being the best Fargo villain of the year.

Maureen Trefry

Outstanding service as president and an even better sport in countless Turkey Raffle videos – especially as Cliff from Cheers.

Marshall Handly

Continuing to wear the crown as "The Most Interesting Man in the World," and keeping that iconic yellow VW bug rolling (Rotary fines for rides still pending).

Diane H

Sticking it out as the only other female sergeant, volunteering endlessly, and serving as our very own Obi-Wan Kenobi.

Lori C

All the good work – leading directly to scholarships!!!

Adam W

Rotaract – voluntold, and delivering.

Carlos Robledo

For resisting the temptation to take and publish numerous scandalous photos of Rotarians at play.

Nathan Seavey

Continuing to sell real estate while secretly knowing he should be the world's foremost voice-over artist.

Bill Scanlon

Mayor for Life. 'Nuff said.

John Shuka

Creator of the legendary Shuka Stick.

Linda Turcotte

Amazingly successful realtor and tireless do-gooder.

Almiris Verga

Patiently dealing with bounced checks and counterfeit funds at the check-in table – every single week.

Julie Flowers

Keeping the Reflection Committee organized – and proving that running a committee is no joke.

Walter Hartford

Investment advisor to the stars – expertly managing inflated investor egos.

Peter Hersee

Cheerfully greeting every Rotarian and guest since the Eisenhower administration.

Brad Hunt

Overseeing the banking needs of a true "Who's Who" of the North Shore.

Rebecca Imperiali

Managing the Club's biggest annual event while running marathons and adventuring worldwide.

Mike Jones

Selling Super Bowl squares, running scratch ticket raffles, cheering on the Patriots, and being the go-to insurance agent for North Shore movers and shakers.

Virginia Jones

Kindly overseeing nursing services for hundreds of people.

Kyle Marsh

Wearing the crown as The North Shore's Best Dressed Banker – and starring as my love interest in raffle videos.

Andrew DeFranza

Providing affordable housing to hundreds of families while chasing a toddler around the house.

Kenann McKenzie-DeFranza

Bravely running for public office while serving as a valued community leader.

Connor Mooney

Stepping up as VP and now President – the "Doo-gie Howser" of Rotary Club Presidents.

Brian Murphy

The region's most talented artist, doing good everywhere he goes.

Dave Olson

Courageously opening hundreds of "Dear Editor" letters over many years.

Dianne Palter Gill

Finding – and leading – the perfect song year after year.

Matt Piaker

Never complaining while golfing with "less-than-par" Rotarians and being routinely excluded from lists of the world's greatest guitar players.

Jackie Rap

America runs on Dunkin'. Beverly Rotary runs on Jackie.

BONUS -

Dr. Jamie's contribution is always accompanied by her California energy and best headshot model ever!

Mike Harrington's inexhaustible attention to the club fundraisers and filming/interviewing the "Around Town with Rotary" guests along with Al Temkin, who also does a fabulous job presiding over the Thanksgiving Parade no matter the weather.

Speaker:

Amelia Castelli - Recipient of the Jack Good's Scholarship for Adult Learners

She has a BFA degree in Art Therapy and currently pursuing a master's degree in clinical health - graduating in 2027

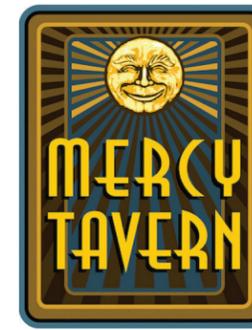

Born in RI but Beverly resident and the North Shore since attending Endicott College.

Amelia expressed her heartfelt appreciation for Rotary's scholarship which will help her pursue her dreams of improving the lives of people with disabilities and make the world a better place to live.

Meeting adjourned at 1:27pm
