Financial Advice

MONEY MATT-ers

Dear Matt,
I was over in Salem and one of the street buskers talked about Day of the Dead. I gave him $5 bucks to shut up, was this a wise choice?
– Hal O'ween on Hale Street

Dear Hal,
You did the right thing in asking for quiet in a loud world. The Day of the Dead (Spanish: Día de Muertos) is a Mexican holiday focuses on gatherings of family and friends to pray for and remember friends and family members who they haven't seen in a while, much like some past Presidents. Hey wait a minute, this is a finance column. May your drives be true and your putts delightful as they drop.
– Matt

Yes I'm juicy and delicious, much like a NOF lb Turkey
Pictured above is tasty Dave, a treat for any Thanksgiving table. But first things first you need to buy a raffle ticket. Sample at right. By this time you should have sold all or most of the 5 tixs you received. Now what to do? Well you can hand in tickets to Dave Olson and checks too if you like so its off your hands. Dave is the go to guy so go to him and free your mind and soul.

Last weeks speaker

Pictured is Peter Johnson with President Matt Piaker who aided with a Global Grant Project for fresh well water in Kisumu, Kenya. This was a joint Global grant with the Chippenham Club of England with support from our friends across the bridge in Salem. 6 Wells were dug and placed to bring clean water to this very arid area. Peter has spoken to both the Chippenham club and Beverly club, where he presented a slide show and enlightened us about the logistics and challenges faced in Kisumu. The project was brought to our attention by Rick Squires, a member of the Chippenham Club, and friend of Peter. Truly a life changing effort by Rotary to provide clean water. Peter although not a Rotarian (were trying to rope him in) has the same values as Rotary which we are grateful for. Rotary making a difference. A picture of the well in action is also shown for your viewing pleasure.

Oh, mighty MATTRA, please save our club from the pressures of a cruel world and Red Sox fans run amok from, can you believe 4 championships this century! Oh yeah they kicked some serious Dodger, Astro and Yankee toucas!

A darkly lit church graveyard, a damp, musty meatpacking plant storage facility, a haunted house with strange sounds...

None of this has anything to do with Rotary but we need to take up space since it's blank otherwise. Happy Halloween + one.
