GASTRONOMY WITH GABRIEL FOODIES FORUM

Dear Sue:
Longtime reader, first time writer. Found this down at the
"Thrift" Any ideas
what I can use it for?

Stumped on Story Ave.

News from Jose David, our former Rotary Youth Exchange student (2012-13). Recently he took a trip to Venezuela and sponsored a lunch for underprivileged children in his hometown. It was a lovely time helping those who needed it. I shared my experiences with the kids about being an exchange student hosted by the Beverly club. Currently I'm living in NYC and I'm part of the Rotaract club in Manhattan, in which we've been doing some really cool charities as well. Always thankful for the opportunity Rotary gave me, which truly changed my life. Always satisfying seeing all the good Rotary does worldwide.

Warm regards,
Jose David.

Dear Mystery,
What a find, a rare 4 Way Taste Tray. Originally designed for veggie platter and elegant entertaining, but you can stock with any kind of Charcuterie, meat treats and cheeses, or even nuts if you enjoy nuts in all sizes. Happy entertaining my lucky friend. As always Bon appetite readers! Gastronomy with Gabriel is a food advice column.

Rotary Garden

Thanks to the garden crew last week who cleaned up our garden and make it the envy of the Garden City. Plus the team helped ALL summer to make it a special place. Hey wait if Moiph took the pic how is he in pic? Pageantry of Photoshop folks, that's all.

Green Tie that sure to keep Irish eyes smiling

Conjuring up spirit of Don Kelley and Darby O'Gill, Brad Hunt is sporting a Irish green tie. Only 158 days until St.
Patricks Day and seems as if Sir Brad cannot wait. Which is odd since he's late every week...

Moment of truth when it was revealed Pam Sweet won the Summer Scratch Fever. Sold by the Commish two years in a row, makes you wonder if Commish gets a commish?
just saying 4 Way Test.
