1950's. She also tried to see if pics taken by editor were up to snuff, but failed to suppress the press! Don't mess with the Zohan!!

PRAYER WORTH REPEATING

Friends,
If, like me, you watch the news, you know how easily we can fall into a sense of despair, for the world often seems like a harsh and unsafe place, lacking fairness and justice. This feeling is often accompanied by a sense of helplessness.

Fortunately, there is another side to this coin. There is still light and hope and good in the world, and the light fills the darkness, and the hope and good fills us with gratitude. As we are in the season of Thanksgiving, Gratitude is the theme for this reflection.

I am grateful for my family and friends
I am grateful for the love
I am grateful for the fellowship I am grateful for the food on my plate, and the opportunity to share it I am grateful for the big things and especially for the little things.
I am grateful for the blessings that we enjoy
And for the blessing of providing help to those in need I am grateful for having the choice of showing gratitude every day, because gratitude is indeed a choice, a way of living, a way of enriching our lives and the lives of those around us.

I am grateful for all of you.
Amen - Matt Piaker

CLOTHING DRIVE

7,500 immigrant families are presently being cared for in state sponsored shelters. Many have come from warmer climates and are desperately in need of clothing as winter approaches. We are asking if you can donate clean, warm, gently used clothing, including coats, boots. Or new socks and underwear if you can.

Clothes should be placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Society bins located in the St. John's parking lot across from Saint's Academy 111 New Balch Street, Beverly. Clothing will be picked up on November 18th just prior to Thanksgiving.

KEEP IN MIND DURING DAY THIS IS A SCHOOL SO DRIVE CAREFULLY.

Thank you for your continuing generosity to friends in need.

TIPS FOR WAITSTAFF

A reminder to mark on your schedule!
each week Nadine and Linda bring us delicious (debatable) food and service with a smile. PLUS, take care of us extra needy (Gluten Free, Lactose Intolerant and Vegetarians). We can reward this fine service by giving them something to show your appreciation. We suggest $20 but any amount you can give would be appreciated. We will be putting out a basket at check in to leave some cash. If you want to pay online let the commish know the donation is for tips. Thanks in advance
